

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 10-16

Night+Day

FEBRUARY 9-15, 2011 | VOLUME 30 | NUMBER 3

SAT/2.12

[ART PERFORMANCES]

Public Display of Affection

It appears the folks behind Valen-tiny Night are employing the age-old nicknaming conventions of Opposite Day. A fat guy named Slim! A tall guy named Shorty! So it is with "-tiny" in the title of this fabulously multifarious and indeed huh-yooj evening of entertainment. Witness feelings, nothing more than feelings from Portland synth-pop supertalents Lovers. Singer Cubby Berk's danceable poetry gets you gazing in the eyes of your OkCupid hookup and hoping for long days, sparking spliffs, and listening to Dylan on your hi-fi. Drink in dreamy local artist and playwright Dave End's po-mo peep show in the elevators. Nibble some snacks, regard a performance by Jess Curtis, and check out the exhibits. You could reflect on the way human hearts find each other for purposes from sex to kissing to love to simple (or is it?) asexual coexistence, as celebrated by a small but firmly entrenched contingent in the Gay Pride parade. Friends! How can you be so skinny and live so phat?

Valen-tiny Night starts at 8:30 p.m. at the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, 701 Mission (at Third St.), S.F. Admission is free; call 978-2787 or visit www.ybca.org. TARA JEPSEN

VALEN-TINY IDEA NIGHT: A BIG IDEA NIGHT PRODUCTION

SAT, FEB 12, 2011, 8:30-11:30PM
FREE W/ADVANCE RSVP

YBCA and Michelle Tea's RADAR Productions co-curate a pre-Valentine's Day evening of artistic debauchery! Beat Hallmark to the punch with a voluptuous roster of activities and workshops to titillate you and your date. Featuring "Infatuated," an interactive cell phone game of l'amour designed by Situate, a site-specific performance by Jess Curtis, postmodern peepshows in our elevators, and three exhibits on view, Valen-tiny Idea Night will set your arty hearts aflutter. FREE admission for all ages and cheap drinks for 21+ with ID!
